

Pilar Echezarreta

Wednesday February 17th at 6pm in CG-042, UL
All welcome, light refreshments will be served
Held in association with Instituto Cervantes

We are delighted to be hosting Pilar Echezarreta on the SofA this week on Wednesday the 17th of Feb at 18:00 in the architecture studio, CG-042. This is the final in our lecture series in conjunction with Instituto Cervantes. Light refreshments will be served before the talk commences. <http://www.pilarechezarreta.com/>

Pilar Echezarreta was born in Spain and raised in Mexico City. She graduated from the School of Architecture in Mexico City and was offered a fellowship in Decorative Arts by the École Nationale Supérieure des Arts Décoratifs in Paris. She holds a Masters degree in Architecture from Columbia University, New York. She has exhibited her work on inflatable architecture, video and installation in Mexico, Spain and Paris, including the "Fonds Régional d'Art Contemporain Ile-de-France" and the "Carrousel du Louvre". More recent works were featured in the touring exhibition "Freshlatino", and "Golden Pearl" (solo exhibition presented last January 2010 at the Museo Experimental El Eco, Mexico City). She has collaborated in various architectural offices from Mexico City, Paris, New York to Shanghai. She held the position of Assistant Professor at the University Of Pennsylvania School Of Design in the post-professional degree programme, and was named runner-up in European 8 [2006] with a project aiming to inject new inspiration into architecture through an urban species system of 400 inhabitation dwelling styles.

Looking forward to seeing you at what promises to be a very exciting talk.

SofA

Society of Architecture, University of Limerick, Ireland

societyofarchitecture.blogspot.com