

SofA will be hosting Ryan Kennihan this evening Monday 1st of March at 18h00 in CG-042 the architecture studio. Light refreshments will be served before the talk.

Ryan Kennihan studied architecture at Cornell, graduating in 2001. He moved to Ireland in 2002, working first with Boyd Cody Architects and in 2007 opened Ryan W. Kennihan Architects. Ryan W. Kennihan Architects has been the recipient of multiple design awards including from the AAI, the RIAI and the 2007 Opus Architecture and Construction Award, most recently winning the international competition for no. 16 Henrietta Street, Dublin. He is a studio tutor at the Dublin School of Architecture and is currently teaching thesis studio at UCD.

SofA

--

Society of Architecture, University of Limerick, Ireland

societyofarchitecture.blogspot.com